A COSTUME DINNER.

BRILLIANT GATHERING AT MRS. ANSON PHELPS STOKES'S HOME.

The most important incident of last night in societ. costume dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Anson phelps Stokes for the young friends of their daughter. Mass Helen Phelps Stokes, at their home, No. 229 Madison ave. About 120 people sat down to dinner. The servants were hand-ome liveries of the period of

An elaborate menu was served by Pinard. During the dinner there was music by the Hungarian gand, which was stationed in the conservatory. Lander's After dinner the cotillon was danced, Alexander M. Hadden leading with Miss Phelps Stokes.

Mrs. Stokes received in the Louis XVI drawing room with her daughter. She wore a sixteenth century costume of white satin and crimson brocade and many Miss Stokes were a costume of the time of Marie Antoinette, which was made by Koenler. The petticoat was of white satin embroidered in a Watteau The body and train were of red satin proceeded with gold. Mr. Hadden, who led the cotilion with Miss Stokes, wore a Richard Coeur de Lion complete suit of armor.

Miss Adelina Moller's dress was copied from a por trait of the Princess Lamballe. It was pigeon-blue brocade, with a silver pattern. Her powdered hair was Josephine costume of white and gold garlanded with Miss Hawley was in a Greelan costume of soft cream-colored crepe trimmed with a Grecian key pattern in silver. Miss Molly Whitney went as Aurera Miss Greenleaf as Maid Marian were a gown of The heavy velvet skirt was held up by a hunting hore The draperies and petticoat were embre with golden oak leaves. Miss Ives went as a French parquise of the last century, in a pretty but simple and pink satin, powdered hair and patches s; Arthur Curtiss James had a beautiful First Empire jewels were worn with the dress, Lawrence were an Encroyable costume of white sattr rimmed with blue and-white-striped velvet. At the orange was a ball of rare lace. Flora Davis had a Dresden-china shepherdess dress of pink, white and pale blue satin, with bipaniers and a leghorn hat trimmed with roses. ok was gilded and was hong with pink re-

John Jacob Astor wore the costume of a Vene tian lady of the sixteenth century, of rich brocade and laces and many jowels. John Jacob Astor was dressed as a Venetian nobleman of the same period in crimson plush and gold brocade. He carried a sword of the

Miss Randolph wore a Marie Antoinette dress pink and white satin, draped with white chiffon. Her high, powdered wig was dressed with feathers and rib II. Le Grand Cappon wore a Francis I costume wore with it a beautiful order of gold of the same period. Mrs. Connur wore a Charles II court d white brocade, trimmed with point lace. Her els were diamonds. Miss Bessie Deladeld was in nade of blue velvet and sliver brocade, the sieeves sinshed with the sliver brocade. Her was powdered with brinze. In the bair, diamond ord to-day with sword and all. Martin de Garmendia a Louis XVI costance of cardinal red velvet trimmed The knee liperches were of white satin and jewelled buckles were worn at the knees and

H. W. Coper and a French ar uniform of durk blue cloth and gold with se of rose-colored plash and charact of gray issumedan. C. Moller had one of the most gargeous restumes of the eventur. It was a complete Japanese coart dress, bought by him in Japan last winter. The main portion of the dress was of a pair yellow towards, with a partern in gold of different tints. This was relieved by a sash and drapperes of two chades of blue, light and dark. The costume was complete by every detail.

"FAUST" REPEATED.

Gongod's "Faust" was repeated at the Metropolitan opera House inst night with one change in the cast instead of the expected two changes. Madame Albant Margherito, a part in which she shows of knowledge and sympathy that is exceed tifying and all but atones for the want of appointment; that was reserved for the harneter of Mephistopheles in place of the becausable the weather and his physician sent a certificate to the spera house yesterday saying that he would not be table to sing again before next Monday. The attrac-liveness of the opera was attested by as namerous in anothence as has gathered in the opera house this

THE PATTI CONCERTS POSTPONED. Madame Patti is boarse and the concert announced for this evening is postponed till next Tuesday evening. The cencert originally set down for Tuesday afternoon is now announced for the afternoon of Wednesday January 20.

Heads of families engaging servants for the town peason will find the short advertisements on the ninth page an invaluable servants' directory.

SPEAKER CEISP HAS A SETBACK.

Washington, Jan. 6.—The wretched weather of yes-terday and last night affected Speaker Crisp somewhat. renewing his coughing spells and thereby interrupting his sleep. This morning, however, he again went to sleep, and recovered some of his broken rest. He con-tinues slowly to improve in health.

M'KEE RANKIN SUING FOR DIVORCE.

San Francisco, Jan. 6.-McKee Rankin, the wellknown actor, has begun suit in this city for divorce from his wife on the ground of desertion. They were married in Boston in 1ect), and have two grown-up daughters. Of late, it is stated, Mrs. Rankin has not lived with her husband.

MRS. CROCKER'S GIFTS TO CHARITY.

San Francisco, Jan. 6 (Special).-In settling the a counts of the trust fund left by Mrs. Mary A. Crocker. the widow of the railroad millionaire, Charles Crocker, it was found that nearly $100,000 had been distributed in charity during the last two years. The fund is $500,000 and the interest was slightly overdrawn. Fits generous charity has alded many worthy societies.

WEDDINGS.

Meadville, Penn., Jan. 6 (Special).-E. Arden Flood, a graduate of Johns Hopkins University, and the sen of the Rev. Dr. T. L. Flaced, Editor of "The Chantan quan," was married to-night to Miss Anna Davis, o this city. Bishop John H. Vincent, of Buffalo, per formed the ceremony. The bridesmalds were Miss Florence De Fauw, New-Albany, Ind.; Miss Elizabeth Gamble, Saginaw, Mich.; Miss Elizabeth Blair, Sewick ley, Penn.; Miss Alice Church and Miss Rebie Flood, Meadville. The ushers were Robert J. Finley, New York; J. C. Johnston, Louisville, Ky.; D. A. Gill, J. P. Reynolds and A. L. Bates, Messiville.

The marriage of Miss Florence Edna Plass to Peter The marriage of Miss Florence Edia Plass to Peter Henry Heiskell, Jr., took place last evening at the home of the bride's parents. No. 140 West One-hundred and twenty-sixth-st., the Rev. Dr. Lavelle officiating. Miss Fanchon Haver, of Brooklyn, was maid of honor. The bridesmards were Miss Hattle feacham, of Brooklyn, and Miss Addie Brown, of New York. St. Julien B. Dapray, of Washington, acted as best man, and the unbers were Louis Miller and W. Gaston Hawks, of New York. A large reception followed the ceremony.

NOTES OF THE STAGE.

Augustus Pitou bought yesterday from T. Henry Prench a play that was successfully produced it Paris last July under the title of "Article 231." Paul Ferrier, and has been adapted for the English stage by Frederick Homer, with the title of "The Last Straw." It is soon to be played in Lonton, and Mr. Pitou will get it ready for his stock company as quickly as possible. He will use the English adaptation and title.

On account of the sudden illness of Miss Marie Barkany her first performance of "Adrienne Lecouvreur" at the Amberg Theatre was postponed until

A dispatch from Berlin says that the Emperor has conferred the Order of the Red Eagle upon Gustav Amberg, the manager of the Amberg Theatre. was sent to Count Hochberg, who in turn transmitted it to Consul-General Fugel. The decoration will probably reach this city some time next week.

The one-hundredth and last performance of "The Tyrolean" at the Casino will be given on Monday evening. On the following evening "Nanon" will be brought forth. The sale of scats begins to day.

A large audience attended the 100th performance of "Alabama," at Palmer's Theatre last night.

els decorated, and an exceedingly pretty souvenir was distributed. It consisted of the programme on satin, inclosed in celluloid covers, handsomely decorated, and with a cotion boll attached. Elmer E. Vance, who became manager of Niblo's orden on Monday, has given up the post again to

FORTUNATE LENOX LIBRARY.

HOW IT BENEFITED BY MRS. STUART'S WILL-

Inquiry into the nature of the property, real and personal, left by Mrs. R. L. Stunrt shows that everyng is in large blocks, and that the securities a "gilt-edge." There is $400,000 par value of New York City non-taxable registered stock; bank stocks, among the list several hundred shares of the Chemical Rank, for which holders are now asking $5,000 a share; large lets with warehouses thereon situated in Reade, Chambers, and Greenwich sts.; and the property occupied by Herter Brothers, Twentleth-st, and This properly is estimated to be worth $750,000. It is ninety two feet in the avenue eet in Twentieth st. Her lot No. 871 Fifth ave. is fifty-five feet in Fifth-ave, by 200 feet in Sixty eighth st., and the two adjacent lots in Sixty-eighthcomparison with the eight lots purchased by the cost of $450,000 for 100x200 feet at Sixtleth st. and Fifth-ave. And Elbridge T, Gerry Just publication.000 for 100x175 feet at the next corner of Fifth ave. Mrs. Stuart's house alone cost $400,000, $900,000. Here are two properties, Twentieth-st. and sixty-eighth-st., valued at $1,650,000, she paid $70,000 for the stable in Seventy-first-st. tioned before is No. 118 William-st., left her by her father, Mr. McCrea.

As the executors ere allowed to sell all this at public private sale, and on the terms which they think best, and also at any time according to their discretion, it will all not more than the present values in all probabilities. Still there is the disadvantage of ing purchasers for such valuable properties. The law allows two and a half years in which to settle up an next year. estate, but nothing will be disposed of for at least six

The Lenox Library will henceforth possess an inreased attraction as a place of interest. After the bequests are paid, amounting in money and books to over $1.000,000, there will be left $4,000,000, of which the Lenox Library will receive about $300,000 though no seen to exact the privilege improved and the library, pictures, minernis, shells, marbles, bronzes and various collections, valued by the executors at $200,000 more. The Eboks "Dost thick because thou art virtuous there shall be are rare editions; the collection of minerals is exceedingly valuatie; the pictures include the works of the inscription; Church, Meyer von Bremen, Schreyer, Alvary, Bon-heur and Eastman Johnson, which cost from $18,000 to It was not explained why they were placed under $40,000 each; a large collection of fans was made by Edwin Booth's R. L. Stuart in his lifetime, and it could be dupli- Drew was the query, "Art thou a comedian?" ated with great difficulty now.

was that these collections might all remain intact and | pathetic "She never told her love." the conditions of the bequest, the Staart name will be came steadily till about 12. Each one was decorated in New-York. The board of managers of on his arrival with an by leaf, the badge of the mow a part of the library hold a regular meeting this evening. John club. The time till midnight was spent in almost S. Kennedy, president of the Lenox Library, said in re- any way, but always pleasantly, with now and the st. Andrew's Society received $10,000, and I

Every one who wishes to buy or rent a house in own or country should examine the little advertise-ents on the ninth page of The Tribune.

DAUGHTERS OF THE REVOLUTION MEET.

The New-York chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met at Sherry's vesterday at 12 Luncheon was served at 1 30 o'clock. After ward men were admitted to the musical and literary Lauterbach sang, Mrs. John Allen recited and Miss Mrs. Roder Prvor, who has held the regency of the society, resigned to accept the office of vice president H. H. Greene, Mrs. J. S. Wyse, Miss Fanny Pryor Mrs. Clarence Postley, Mrs. Vernon II. Davis. Donald McLean, Mrs. James Whitley, Miss Dodge Mrs. Leon Harvier, Mrs. De Garmendia, Miss Louise Ward McAllister, Mrs. Charles A. Dorendis, Mrs. Ogden Doremus, Miss Faunte Wynkoop Clark, Clark, Mrs. John Russell Young, Mrs. William Henry Harrison, Miss Mary Van Buren Vandgrood, Henry Harrison, Mrs. Mary Van Balcon. Mrs. George E. De Forest, Mrs. James C. Irwin Mertin, Mrs. seth Low, Mrs. W. J. Hardy, Mrs. A. G. Mills, Mrs. Morris P. Ferris, Mrs. Richard Henry Greene, Mrs. Helen Frances Vrecland, Mrs. James P. Kernochan and Mrs. E. R. Andrews.

nd Mrs. E. R. Andrews.

Regrets and greetings were received from Mrs. enjamin Harrison, president of the general society; non Miss Eugenia Washington, register of the general society and a grandulece of George Washington, of from the regents of Rhode Island, Pennsylvania of Connecticut. Regrets were also received from the few members of the chapter who were unable to present, the only officer absent being Miss Vangpeel, treasurer, her absence being caused by mess.

MES, FLOWER'S PIRST RECEPTIONS.

Albany, Jan. 6 (Special).-The first of Mrs. Flower's from 3 to 5 o'clock this afternoon, and was well attended. A heavy snowstorm prevalled, but this did not prevent Albany's Indies from paying their respects to the new head of the mansion. Mrs. Flower received her guests in the north parlor, and was assisted by Mrs. Schler, and Mrs. Halsey.

ALLEGED SCHEME FOR A BIG GAMBLING RESORT. Chicago, Jan. 6 (Special).—A local paper says that a big stock company has been organized with a capital of $10,000,000 to establish a pulatial Monte Carlo gaming resort on a small island off the California coast, about thirty miles from Santa Barbara. Most of the stock was gobbled up by New York capitalists, but one Western man has got in, Gardner S. Chapin, of Chicago. "Yes, I am interested in such an enterprise," said Mr. Chapin to-day, when asked about the matter, "and just Chapin was the company can get the island preparations for fitting it up will begin. It will have fine hotels and palaces for gambling. A line of steamers will be put on to ply between the island and Santa Barbara."

A SAN FRANCISCO BREWBRY SEIZED.

San Francisco, Jan. 6.-Internal Revenue Collector Quinn this afternoon seized the Jackson Brewery for violation of revenue laws. Since the death of William Fredericks, the proprietor, five years ago, the brewery has been managed by George Shafer and Daniel Scillyan, and it is claimed that the books show that between 1886 and 1889, 21,000 barrels of beer were produced and sold that did not bear a revenue stamp, and that more mait had been purchased than was shown in the internal revenue books. It is said that the amount of revenue of which the Government has been defrauded is $21,000.

If you want to buy or sell anything, or find work, put a few lines among The Tribune's "little adver-usements of the reople."

THE COUNTESS DE BATONYI WANTS THE MONEY. Poughkeepsie, Jan. 6 (Special).-Richard L. Valentine, an undertaker in the village of Millerton, Dutchess County, has brought a suit against Count Aurel De Batonyi and Countess Hattle De Batonyi, who live in New-York, to ascertain which one of them is the owner of $600 now in the undertaker's hands. The ountess Haitle De Batonyl is the daughter of plain W. R. Smith, of Millerton. It is not long ago that married the count and took apartments in New-After a time they quarrelled and the Count left her and went abroad. Before going he visited Millerton and put $600 in Mr. Valentine's hands, the interest of which was to be used in keeping green Count De Batonyi is now in Australia, and the Countess claims that the $600 is her own personal property, and she wants the undertaker to give the money to her. He declines to do so until the courf decides the ownership. The Countess was in town yesterday in consultation with the hw firm of yesterday in consultation with the hw firm of lackett & Williams, and the case will soon be brought to trial. She is about forty years old. the graves of the father and mother of the Countess.

THE TWELFTH NIGHT CLUB

ORGANIZATION. its fame and of the supposed houry age of the year. Yew-Year's Day was no better, and for five days of January nothing had even the thinnest covering of the snows that are supposed to be a protection against the rigors of a season which has had thus far, it must be confessed, few rigors against which protection could be needed. Fo it fell out that the first genuine appearance of winter was reserved for Twelfth Day. day the snow came. It gave the housetops the bright and clean look that they seldom have, it decked Madison Source with a long-unaccustomed sivle of beauty, and Much more might be written on this same head, but it is all contained in carlous good collections of poems, and this simple statement saves space little unpleasant things about the weather of yesterollian Club from the Hamersley estate at a day-almost all weather in the city is more or less unpleasant-but as long as it was seasonable who Night Club, which had as large, as agreeable and a altogether satisfactory a gathering at its first annual Through the lack of self-assertion on the part of

All this was doffe, as the faithful believe, in honor of the Twelfth Night Club. Of course there were Coular purpose except matual benefit and sjocment. Men are to general excluded from the clab-rooms, not because there is any fundamental objection to them, but because their presence is con trury to the rules of this club. was broken, and they were allowed to come in for the first time-also for the last till Twelfth Night of st, are anything but spacious, but nothing could be prettier than they were last night. The walls were hung with pictures and the doorways with fish nets. Let there be gall enough in thy ink" anday that "Mrs, Stuart linew, during my lifetime at cake was cut. This ancient institution contained Sunday that "Mrs, Stuart knew, during my lifetime at least and my connection with the institution, that its doors would not be opened on sanday." The $500,000 in cash can be used to creet a new building if necessary to comply with the conditions. At first it may look as if Princeton did not receive nucle as its friends expected, but its bequests amount to to over $730,000 is $500,000 to the theological school and $500,000 to the college proper. Besides, it had already received at least $500,000 before Mrs, Siewart's death. She revoked bequests of libbes and books to Princeton, too, but that was for the reason.

MERRY TWELFTH NIGHTERS.

In accordance with their custom of many years, the members of the St. Nicholas Club celebrated Twelfth Night? at the clubbouse last evening At 9 o'clock, King Isaac Lawrence, accompanied by ration declared that the revels might begin, and that the loyal sons of St. Nicholas should draw near and make merry. The King's household accompanied him. They were: Minister of War, William H. De Lancey riculture, Wilson De Peyster; Lord High Chancel lor, Edward H. Johnes; Herald, Dr. William A. Pierre-pont; Lord High Admiral, Frederick W. Merker; Pool Bah, Seymour Van Nostrand, and Club Crank Walter A. Penfield. Mr. Penfield delivered a most doquent address, and advocated that the tariff of billiards and wine in the club should be abolished William J. O'Connor was page and cup (Applause.) bearer to the court, and he was k pt busy. revels lasted until a late hour, and the most suc cessful "Twelfth Night" ever cliebrated by the St Nicholas Club, like all other good things, came to an Isase Lawrence, Judge Henry W. Bookstaver, William J. O'Contior, Edward S. Laurence, Charles J. Nourse, Jr., J. Mutray Mitchell, Milu Parker Falmer, Walter Jr., J. Murray Michell, Mila Parker Falmer, Walter A. Penfield, Rufus King, Eugene T. Lynch, Jr., Fred-erick W. Mecker, N. W. Meserole, Henry S. Roken-baugh, William H. Budd, Robert Southgate Howne, George De Witt, Jr., Floyd Ferris, Bayerd Clarke, David Harmony Biddle, D. Sachett Moore, Morris S. Miller, Dr. William A. Plerrepont, J. Tr-vitt Pike, Dr. Edward Quintard, Walter Rutherford, Edwin Tatham, John H. Eutherford, Edward Van Ness, Cortland 8 John H. Rubertore, John B. Van Schaick, George W. Walsh, Roswell Lyman Colt, Wilson De Peyster, Prancis H. Davies, William H. De Lancey, Andrew Bryson, D. Bryson Delavan, Edward E. Johnes Thomas Bloodgood Peck, Edward Quintard, T. De Witt Thompson, Henry Van Arsdale, Augustus Van Cort landt, Robert A. Van Wyck, Louis A. Zerega, Jacob T. Van Wyck and John Howard Chl.

While the servants in the club were preparing the dining room for the supper to be served at the close of the celebration, the Christmas greens hanging around the mirror at the end of the room took fire from a lighted candle in the hands of one of the men. and for a few memerits burned fleroely. The the club, who burned his lands severely. An alarm was sent out, but there was nothing for the firemen to do when they arrived. Beyond a slight scorching of the woodwork around the mirror, no damage done. This is the second fire which the St. Nicholas. Clab has had, and only Mr. Sutplien's promptness prevented a repetition of the fire of 1889, when the club was burned out.

The Century Club had an especially interesting The Century Club had an especially interesting celebration of the good old English holiday. There was an exhibition of humorous sketches, contributed by artist members of the club, and a still more indicrous display of members in costumes of variegated colors and styles. Each man had to wear the garment assigned to bim, and the result was in many cases most laughable. Some of those who had developed their minds to the neglect of their caives looked highly interesting in mose and doublet. A cocked hat with feathers and tassels was the only old part of the costumes of some, but this made a decidedly the costumes of some, but this made a decidedly bizarre effect in contrast with the evening dress. A number of prominent men were present, but they were net willing to let the public know through the newspapers just how loval they had been to the Twelfth Night costumes of Merry England.

Sright, crisp, little advertisements, describing in a rect way the varied requirements of a host of spile, fill many columns on the minth page of The direct way the people, fill man Tribune to-day.

DYING ON ACCOUNT OF HICCOUGHS.

Laurel, Del., Jan. 6 (Special).- A strange affliction which has bafiled medical skill bas befallen Edward Pardee, a well-known farmer age sighty, of Jones-neck. Mr. Pardee was taken with hiecoughs more than a week ago, and has had them ever since. His life is now despaired of.

WOMEN'S RECEPTION AT THE MONTAUK CLUB. The handsme Montauk Club house, at Eighth-e. and Lincoin Place, Brooklyn, presented a scene brilliancy last evening at the first annual of brilliancy last evening at the first annual women's reception given in the building, which was completed last year. More than a thousand guests of the club assembled. They were received by a committee which included Timothy L. Woo'ruff, James B. was completed last year. More than a closular guests of the club assembled. They were received by committee which included Timothy L. Woo'ruff, James B. Edson, James Foster, Jr., Dr. H. B. Delatour, E. G. Williams, Percy G. Williams, Williams H. Williams, F. E. Bassett, J. L. Burleigh, Henry Boody, Colonel Edward Fack-ner, F. C. Farnsworth, Louis H. Erwin, E. B. Jordan, John Lefferts, Jr., M. L. Orcott, Geerge A. Price, John M. Rider, Harris K. Smith, Frank Squier, F. C. Swan, William J. Tate, William Wilson and Richard Young.

William J. Tate, William Wilson and Richard Young.

Among those present were Mayor and Mrs. Ecody, Mr. and Mrs. Churles A. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore B. Willis, Hassan H. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gaynor, Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Lamb, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Chapin, the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. T. A. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Moody and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Massall.

W. ELLIOT WOODWARD. THE FIRST ANNUAL RECEPTION. Boston, Jan. 6 (Special).-W. Elliot Woodward, a

OBITUARY.

ell-known antiquarian, died in Roxbury on Incolay, ACTRESSES ENTERTAIN THEIR FRIENDS-THE | He was born in Oxford, Maine, October 29, 1825, and received such education as the school of his native of his life-Christmas passed the other day with combinations of town afforded. When but a young man he started out dark colors in town and country that were unworthy of as a lecturer on mnemonics and met with remarkable success. In 1:48 he came to Boston, and engaged i the drug business in Roxbury. From this he retired and rary books, however, that he was known. He was the United States about 1013 years and rary books, however, that he was known. He was the the shoe business. He was engage the best known coin dealer in the country, and his within a short time of his death. series of coin cutalogues is to be found in every large Common Conneil in 1873 and 1874, and served on the committee that had charge of the street changes in the burnt district after the great fire in 1872. He was deeply interested in the history of New-England, and blished reprints of many of the early publications, notably the records of the trials of the witches a Pavisible World," Robert Calef's "More Wonders," Hubbert's "Indian Wars," "News from New-England," Records of Witchcraft in New-England and Else large real estate operator, and once owned the famous was afterward occupied by Governor Fastis, other old landmark, the Swan Home, Derchester, at one time in his accession. He was a man of in usual conversational powers, gifted with a remainable memory, was an omniverous render and was member of many historical and selectible societies.

> ROBERT MAYHEW BARRYMORE BRUCE. Robert Mayhew, well known in the Eighth Ward, dled on Sunday in St. Luke's Hospital and his funeral took place yesterday at the house of Isalah Bonnell. No. 233 Spring-st. He was buried in Evergreens Cemetery. The Rev. Dr. Watte, of St. John's Church. in Varick-st., officiated. Mayhew was regarded as a mysterious person. Some believed him to be a scendant of the famous Robert Bruce, of Scotland, and others said he was a great criminal escaped from Among his effects were found three stories of his life written by himself. The stories agreed. From There were a few who said last Saturday that all the these it appears that his name was Robert Mayhew Barrymore Bruce and that he was born in 1800 in the County of Berkshire. His father was Admiral nine years old. As a result he was disowned by his father and forbidden to use the family name of Bruce He became an architect and in 1803 came to this country. He was a politician and belonged to Tammany Hall. It was in working for that organization on the last Election Day that he caught the cold which caused his death

Dr. Francis Miller, of Highland Bonlevard, Brook n. died on Tuesday at the age of seventy-four. He young man. Until 1864 he practised his profession New-York, and then he removed to East New-York, ow a part of Brooklyn. He left two sons.

GENERAL JAMES V. BOMFORD.
General James V. Bomford, a retired officer of tregular army, died suddenly yesterday from paralysis the heart, at his home in Elizabeth, N. J. He was eight He served with distinction through the Black Hawk Seminale and Mexican wars. He was brevetted major for gallant conduct at the battles of Contreras and Cherubuse on the ramparts of the City of Mexico. He spent twelv years afterward on the Texan frontier.

and obtained the rank of brevet-brigadier-general a the Western frontier. eneral Bomford spent forty-three years in the United States Army, retiring in 1874. It is wife was the daughter of General Newton S. Clarke, a Mexican Wa-French, of the regular army, now stationed at Vancouve

GEORGE ROSS McKENSIE.

George Ross McKensia, for ten verrs president of the sugger Sewing Machine Company, died at his home, No 6 Mercer at , Jersey City, yesterday. His wife died about ound it had a latte dobt, imperied credit and a lin-number of sales. In one year he placed the business of ound backs, and soon afterward began to build up immense tusiness of the company and creeked many build-ings in different cities. He retired from the active work of president in 1888, but he did not dispose of his stock the company.

During his life Mr. McKensle crossed the Atlantic Occas lifty five three. He was a liberal giver to worthy chari-tion and was a benefactor to his native town. In 1847 Mr. McKenela marited Rebecca Elsey, who here him twelve aildren, eight of whom are now living. They are Jame confident, eight of whom are now living. They are James S. Alexander, Urlan R., Margaret, Edward E., Jossie, Isabella and Rebecca E. McKenste. The last-nimed is the only one unmarried. Among the charities of Mr. McKenste was the building of the Scotch Presbyterian Church be placed in the church. He built the John Knox Church and rave it to the congregation, and contributed liberally to many church charities. Mr. McKensle owned a country seat at Gen Spa, Sullivan County, N. Y., which contains 3,000 acres. The funeral will take place at 1 o'clock on

DR. COLIN MACKENZIE.

Dr. Colin Mackenzie died vesterday at his home, No. 121 West Thirty-fourth-st., from pneumonia, after one week's illness. He was afity-three years old, and was born in Cleveland, Ohio. He was educated at St. Paul's School, at Phillips Exeter Academy, and was graduated from the Cleve land Medical College when twenty-one years old. He served to the away three years and their vesters of the reserved. in the army three years as assistant surgeon of the 14th

He was in energy of the busy of the was in energy of the sound afterward served on General Crook's start. After practising medicine in Cleveland for awhite, the removed to this city, where he had a large practice for he removed to this city, where he had a large practice for the last twenty years.

For several years he was assistant surgeon of the Wom-

For several years he was assistant surgeon of the Wom-an's Hospital. He was a member of the Obstetrical So-ciety, of the County Medical Society and of the Alumni Association of Bellevue Hospital. He leaves a wife, one son, Colin, who is twenty-one years old and a sophopore in Williams College. The funeral will be held at his home on Salarday at 11 a. m., and the borial will be at Wood-lawn. PRINCE GUSTAVE OF SAXE-WEIMAR-EISENACH

Vienna, Jan. 6.—Prince Frederick Gustav Charles of exe-Weimar-Elsenach died to-day in this city. He was en at Zeewerghem, near Ghent, Belgium, June 28, 1827 He was a refred Lieutenant Field Marshai of the Austrian army. In 1870 he contracted a merganatic marriage with Pierina Marcocchia de Marcarint, who, in 1872, was created Baroness of Neupurg. She died April 22, 1870. He was a cousin of the reigning Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar-Eisen-DANIEL SHEPARD.

Chicago, Jan. 6 (special).—Daniel Shepard, accretacy of the Republican State Central Committee, and well known to all politicians in this part of the country, died this afternoon of consumption, from which he had been

DR. CHARLES VOGLER. DR. CHARLES VOGLER.

Dr. Charles Vogler, a well-known German physician in Newark, died at his home at Syringdied and Belmont aves., Newark, last night at the age of fifty-seven. He was born in Germany and came to America in 1868, having been graduated at the University of Halle. He was married in Newark, and soon acquired a good medical practice. He was a member of the medical staff of the German Hospital, and for a special physician.

nd for some years was house physician. He leaves a wife, BENJAMIN S. WRIGHT. Boston, Jan. 6.—Benjamin S. Wright, familiarly known to the horsemen of the entire country as "Uncle Ben Wright," died at the home of Horace E. Willis, Medford, to-day, from a complication of diseases, aged seventy-three. For many years he was either in the employ of doonkeepers or himself conducting an oyster house. He milt Riverside Park, then only a half-mile track, in 1860, and remained proprietor for a number of years. This is now known as Beacon Park. Mr. Wright built th This is Myrtle Park track some twenty-three years ago, afterward selling it to Mr. Willis, his business partner. He wa married in early life, but his wife died in about a yea after the wedding, and he remained a widower the res

James Kilpatrick died at his home at No. 105 East htty-sixth-st., yesterday afternoon. He was born in Armagh, County Armagh, Ireland, in 1828, and came ne United States about forty years ago and engaged in he shoe business. He was engaged in active work until five children, Rebecca D. and Frances M. Kilpatrick rangements for the funeral have not been made

CARTER HARRISON.

New-Orleans, Jan. 6.—'The Picayune's' Palestine, Texas, dispatch says: "Carter Harrison, son of C. R. Harrison, and a nephew of President Harrison, died on the northound train Monday, near Franklin. The remains were brought here to be embalmed. Mr. Harrison was a assumptive and had been to San Antonio for the benefit

Grand Rapids, Mich., Jan. 6.—Jacob Barth, for twenty-five years a prominent resident of this city, director and treasurer of the Masonic Mutual Benefit Agency of Western Michigan, treasurer of the Michigan Masonic Home the Scottish Rite Masons, died to-day of pneumonia, super WILLIAM COCHRANE. WILLIAM COURTANE, Chicago, Jan. 6 (Special).—William Cochrane, formerly manager of the Western News Company, and one of Chicago's oldest and most respected residents, died today. He had been suffering for two years with a malady of the liver, and was compelled to retire from business last

A SECOND TICKET TO BE POSTED SOON.

OPPOSITION TO THE REGULAR NOMINEES AT THE opposition to the regular ticket placed in som nation at the Union League Club does not seem to have died away after the first flush of disappointment. antagonism to the nominees would pass away in a few days, but the leaders in the movement are still at work sounding as many members of the club as they can speak with. It is said that they have met with so much encouragement that they will post their ticket many regarded as the next president of the club, has undoubtedly caused much disappointment. as at the chibbonse on Sanday afternoon and fully spinianed his position. He did not want to be rewas at the clubbouse on Sunday afternoon and fully xpinined his position. He did not want to be reelected, but the committee could unite on no other As the only way to end the deadlock, Mr. was born in Germany and came to this country when a Depew decided to accept the nomination. Mr. Bilisa hald undoubtedly have been named had the Birdseye Blakeman ticket for Nominating Committee been succoseful, it is said. George Montague and John R. Van Wormer, candidates for treasurer and secretary, e popular men, and there is not the slightest thought of opposing them.

Committee and Committee on Admissions are objected McKENZIE-On Wednesday, January 6th, at his residence, 40 Mercersta, Jersey City, George R. McKenzie, on the ground, either that they have not beck members of the club long enough, or that they have pressed it: "The men are all right personally, but | Please Perhaps they would make excellent committeemen but many of us believe that the older members should not have been passed over in favor of comparatively raw recruits." There is still the most vigorous complaining because J. Scaver Page was not nominated believed to the second of the s for a good committee. Except in three cases hitherto, the retiring secretary has always been thus cared for.

PLOTTERS CLAIMING THEIR REWARD.

WEMPLE AND GRIFFIN WANT TO BE RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS-GANDIDATES FOR OTHER STATE OFFICES.

Albany, Jan. 6 (Special).-Several of the men who ere prominent in the Democratic party's efforts to count in a Democratic Legislature are now claiming their reward from Governor Flower. One of them is Edward Wemple, the former State Controller, who, as member of the State Board of Canvassers, had a great deal to do with the success of the plot. Mr. Wemple, it is now said, desires to be appointed a allroad Commissioner, at $5,000 a year salary for five years. Another man is Daniel G. Griffin, of Watertown, the chairman of the Executive Committee of the sisting upon the granting of certificates of election to the Democratic candidates for Sonator. Mr. Griffin was not shocked even when Governor Hill, Frank Rice, the Secretary of State, and Edward Wemple, the Controller, suppressed the true report of the election held in Datchess County. Mr. Griffin also claims, as his reward for his part in the transaction, the office of Railroad Commissioner. Two Railroad Commissioners will go out of office the coming year. Supplied Mr. Wemple receive one and Mr. Griffin the other in re-waid for their services.

But there are other candidates for Kallroad Commissioner, namely, William Furcell, of Rochester Editor of "The Rochester Union and Advertiser," and Elnathan Sweet, of Albany, formerly State Engineer There are already three candidates for Health Officer of Troy, family physician of Edward Murphy, Jr., the chairman of the Democratic State Committee; Dr.

Joseph D. Byrant. ★New York, at present surgeon-General, and Deputy Coroner Jenkins, of New-York, a brother-in-law of Richard Croker.

Thomas J. Ford, a member of District Assembly No. 40, Knights of Labor, is a candidate for Factory Inspector in place of John Connoily, whose ferm has expired.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY. A feature of this evening will be the first of the Ladies' Assemblies, which always ranks as one of the brilliant balls of the season. It will be given in the Assembly Room of the Madison Square Garden Build-Among the many dinner parties to precede it it will be those given by Mrs. William Astor and Miss Amy Townsend. The latter will be for debutantes.

The wedding of Mrs. Roberts to Colonel Ralph Vivian, of England, will take place in Calvary Church, Fourth ave. and Twenty-first-st., this afternoon at 3 o'clock. A small reception will follow at the house of Mrs. Roberts, No. 107 Fifth-ave. A. C. Gurnee, of No. 626 Fifth-ave., gave a farewell backelors' dinner to Colonel Vivlan on Tuesday aven ing. Among the guests were Colonel Stracey, Colonel Cathbert Larking, H. Maitland Kersey, H. C. Beau mont, Lispenard Stewart, T. J. Oakley Rhinelander, J. J. Astor, John Furman and G. Cavendish Bentinck. The first of a series of receptions to be given by Dr. Lucy M. Hall-Brown at her home, No. 181 Joralemon st., Brooklyn, following her marriage, will take place next Monday evening. Among the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Frown who will be present is Miss Clara Barton, at whose home in Washington the wedding

THE MARYLAND LEGISLATURE MEETS. Annapolis, Md., Jan. 6.-The two houses of the faryland Legislature assembled at noon to-day

Murray Vandiver, Democrat, of Hartford County, was chosen Speaker of the House, and Edward Lloyd, Democrat, of Talbot County, President of the Senate. The Governor's annual message was presented. PURITY is an essential in all beverages, but particularly in simulants. No whiskey made can compare with the Mount Vernon Whiskey for fine flavor and wholesomeness. By special permission of the United States Gov ernment it is bottled on the distillery premises and is surrounded by guarantees of its purity which command the confidence of the public. Buy it in square bottles nt all leading dealers' Decrioot Farm Sausages, made from dairy-fed pork, fresh every day, for sale by first-class grocers and market-men. In two-pound jackages. See trade-mark of deer's foot) is stamped on every package. Beware of imita-

Go to bed if you are tired. Can't sleep if you do! Then Catarrh Can Be Cured surely, safely and pleasantly y Pise's Ramedy. It cures when all else falls. All ruggists. 50c.

CRANE-BOYD-At Philadelphia, Pa., Jon. 6, 18 the Rev. Mr. McKay, Oliver T. Crane, of Helena, and Gertrude N. Hoyd, daugater of the late Dav Boyd, of Philadelphia, Pa.

HEISKELL-PLASS-On Wednesday, January 6, 1892, at the residence of the bride's 1 stants, 140 West 126th st., by the Rev. Dr. Lavelle, Fl. thee Elma Plass, daughter of Herbert C. Plass, to Peter Henry Heiskell, R., of Washington, D. C. MARRIED.

DIED.

BAKER-On Tuesday, January 5, E. S. Baker, aged 68 Funeral services at his late residence, 268 Lenox-ave., on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. BROWNE-On January 5, 1802, at his late residence, Eerry H. Browne, in the 62d year of his age. Notice of funeral hereafter. PRILAS At Patchogue, L. I., Tuesday, January 5, of pneumonia, Mary E., wife of Br. T. H. Burras, formerly CHAPMAN-A: Ogdensburg, N. Y., January 5, 1892.

Richard B. Chapman, formerly c. 1750 year.

Ott NE—On Sunday evening, January 3, of grip, Mary Crane.

Funesal on Friday, January 8, at 2:30 p. m., from the late residence of her sister, Mrs. P. F. Sanford, Mount Pleasant-ave., West Ornane. N. J.

Carriagres will be at the Orange station of the D. L. and W. Raifroid to neet the train leaving New-York at 1:39

Stuart Forshay. Funeral at the Home Thursday, Jan. 7th, at 2 p. m.

ACORUS-At Tonatly, N. J., January 5, at 7:30 a. m., Elma Mandeville, widow of Cornellus 1, Jacobus, in her Elma Mandeville, widow of Cornellus I, Jacobus, in her 53d year. uneral from her residence in Tenafly Friday, January 8, at 2:50 p. m.

JOHNSON-At New-Britain, Connecticut, Wednesday, January 6, 1892, Mrs. Katherine C. Joanson, in the 52d year

deace, 46 Mercerst. Jersey City, George R. McKenzie, in the 726 year of his are. Pumeral services will be field at the Scotch Probyterian Church, Mercerst., Jersey City, on Saturday, January 9th, at I o'clock p. m. Please omit flowers.

Kenrie, in the 53d year of his age. Functal services at his late residence, 121 West 34thest, or Saturdey, Jan. 9th, at 11 a. m.

20 p. m., rea will be in waiting on the arrival of the 1:03 from the Gund Central Depo. PAINT At Worcester, Mass, the 4th list, Ann Cushing Sterris, widow of Feeteres William Phine, and duranter of the late Russell Sturgls and Elizabeth Perkins, of Feeters, there is the pair.

ages will meet train leaving Grand Central Station at Funeral services will be held in Presbyterian Church, Rockaway, N. J., on Thursday, Jan. 7, 1852, at 1:30 o'clock.

THOMPSON-On Jan. 6th. In this city, James Thompson, of the firm of James Thompson & Co., in the bist year of his age.
Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral sorvices at the Fourth Proshvierran Courch, 3tt.-st., near Broadway, on Friday, Jan. 8th. at 10 o'clock. in.
Interment at Bellist, Ireland.

Intersect at Regist Presset, TreHENOR -On Wishnesday, Jan. 6, Alice G., wife of William J. Pichenor. Notice of functal hereafter.

N. J. on Frind, James, Colorado, on Lecember 29, aged 87 years, James Robert, cidese son of the late James Wardney, of New-Brighton, Staten Island.

Special Notices.

New-Eugland Monument Company. Cemetery Memorials in Granite, Bronce and Marbia.

Postofile Notice

(Should be read daily by all interested, as changes may occur at any time.)

Letter, for foreign countries need not be specially addressed for dispatch by any pardettlar steamer, except when it is desired to each duplicates of banking and counserfal dominents, letters not specially alreased being sent by the fastest vessels available.

Foreign mails for the week ending January 9 will close (principle) and cases at this office as follows:

THURSDAY-At 9.30 a. b. s. Brenton, from Parladelphis, at 11 30 a. bhanes Brun at 1 30. In for Nassal, N. a. May 1. S. Dama; at 1. S. Mare and Marting and the find the first parlade of the parlaments of the parlament of the pa

p. m.
DILLON—On Tuesday, Jan. 5, Harriet A. Dillon, widow of Robert Dillon, in her 50th year.
Notice of funeral hervatter.
DONALDSON—January 4, Hannah C. Donaldson, widow of the late R. A. Donaldson.
Funeral from her inte residence. No. 202 Berkeley Place.
Brooklyn, Thursday, January 7, at 2 p. m.
Interment private.
Pittsburg papers please copy.
EUSTIS—Wednesday, January 6, at her late residence.
Morris Heights, Minnie Rutty, wife of John E. Eustla, of preumona.

of pneumonia.
Funeral at the residence Saturday at 10:30 a. m.
FORSHAY-At the Eaptist Home, Jan. 5, Alexander

Funeral at the Home Thursday, Jan. 143, at 2 p. m. (ILFORD—On Tuesday morning, January 5, at her residence, 173 Lexington-aue, after a brief libress, Sarah, wrife of Thomas B. Gdford, and daspiter of the late Dr. J. S. W. Farkin, in the 57th year of her age.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend the inneral services at the Church of the Incarrention, Madison-ave, and 55th-st., on Friday morning, January 5, at 10 o'clock.

It is requested that no flowers be sent.

It is requested that no flowers be sent.

REEN-Entered into rest January 5, in New-York City, Harriette treem, daughter of Jacob Green, of Wappinger's Faits, N. Y.

Annuary 7, at 2:30 p. m.

January 7, at 2:30 p. m.

Arriages in waiting at New-Hamburgh station on arrival of Dain leaving Grand Central Depot at 11:30 a. m.

at 2.30 p. m. JOHNSON—January 6, at her late residence, Hotel Russ-win, New-Bittam, Conn., of pneumonia, Mrs. Catharine C. Johnson, aged 82 years.

Funeral at her residence on Thursday, Jan. 7, at 2:15 p. m. Funeral at her residence on Hullsday, Jan. 1, across the KERR-At Philadelphia, Penn., on January 1, to his 75th year. David B. Kerr, formerly of New-York City. Priciads are respectfully inviced to gitend funeral services at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Joseph Hill, 144 West S2d.st., on Thursday, January 7, at 8 p. m.

Notice of internal Tuesday, January 5, at her residence, electrivity on the Hudson, Ann Augusta Vallete, wife of Clermont Livingston and daughter of the late. Thomas streathed Clarkson.
Femoral at St. Paul's Church (Tiveli) on Thursday, January 7, at 11 o'clock a. in. Thomas State and Schurch (Tiveli) on Pass.

Proposal at St. Paul's Church (Tiveli) on Pass.

ary 7, at 11 wiclock a. in.

Train loaves Grand Central Depot at 7:30 a. in., and recording leaves Tiveli at 12:06 and 3:07 p. in.

LOWETRE—At Fushing, L. I., January 5, 1892, Thomas B. Lowers, in the 57th year of his size residence, 14.

Functal services will be held at his late residence, 14.

Union-st., on Thur-day, January 7, 1892, at 2:30 p. in.

Lanuary 1, 1892, in the 87th year of 0.01 a. m., at Mt. Kisco.

SMALLEY-At Bound Brook, N. J., January 4, Mary E., daughter of the late Abram and Jane Smalley.

Funeral services at her late r x druce, corner Somerset and Hamilton sts. Tunesday, January 7, at 2:30 p. m. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend.

STICKLE-Endly C., at Beach Glen, on Tuesday, Jan. 5, 1892.

Democratic State Committee. He was in Albany TIETJEN-On Monday, Junuary 4, Heavy Tietjen, aged telestives and friends are respectfully invited to attend functal from his late residence, 11d Thompson st., Thursday, the 7th inst., at 1 p. m.

January 5, entsyd into reak Samuary 5, entsyd into reak Samuary 5, entsyd into reak year. Moreover, on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, Dirial services from 19 Kirkjartick-st., New-Brunswick, N. J., on Friday, January 8, at 2 o'clock p. m.

Fuceral private. Interment to Greenwood, Sinten Island and Youkers papers please copy.

Last Days Architectural League Exhibition. FIFTH AVENUE ART GALLERIES.

336 FIFTH AVENUE.

Magnificent Collection of Architectural Drawings.

Designs for the World's Fair Buildings.

Accepted Design for Cathedral of St. John the Divine.

Supern Lean Collection.

1,321 Breadway, opposite Dodge Statue.

lines Poet de Paix, per s. s. Ozania at 1:30 p. m. for Para and Manos, per s. s. Cyril.

Midday At 2 p. m. for Porto Rico direct, per s. s. Rillo Ay At 2 p. m. for Porto Rico direct, per s. s. Rillo Ay At 2 p. m. for Porto Rico direct, per s. s. Rillo Ay At 2 p. m. for Porto Rico direct, per s. s. Gyril.

SATURDAY At 8 s. m. compositioner and furkey, per s. s. La Normandie!; at 1 at 7 g. for France, sevitoriand, Italy, Solan, Portugal and Turkey, per s. s. La Normandie via Havre (letters for other ports of Europe must be directed 'per La Normandie!'); at 9:80 a. m. (supplementary 11:30 a. m.) for Europe, per s. s. Rothina, via Queenschown; at 11 a. m. for Hayti. Cumas and Carupano, per s. s. Prins Willem I (letters for other vereinnella Ports and for Curaca, Trinidad, British and Dutch Guiana, must be directed 'per Prins Willem I'!); at 11 a. m. for Campete. Chiepas. Tebasca and Yucatan, per s. s. City of Washington 'letters for Cula, Tampico and Tuxpam direct, and for other Mexican States via Vera Cuuz, must be directed 'per City of Washington'); at 11 a. m. for Notherlands direct, per s. s. Suarndam, via Rotteriam detiers must be directed 'per Spaarndam'); at 11 a. m. for Notherlands direct, per s. s. Venezuela'); at 12 m. Supplementary 12 m.) for Venezuela'); at 12 m. Supplementary 12 m.) for Venezuela'); at 12 m. (supplementary 12 m.) for Venezuela'); at 12 m. (supplementary per s. Venezuela'); at 12 m. (supplementary per s. Venezuela'); at 12 m. (supplementary per s. Notherlands and Garupano unries specially addressed and Curacao, also via Bacl., for st. ihomas, and st. Croix via St. Thomas, for Baruddos and Denezuela 'yia Bacl., for st. ihomas, and st. Croix via St. Thomas, for Baruddos and Benezuela 'yia Bacl., for st. ihomas, and st. Croix via St. Thomas, for Baruddos per s. s. Seguranca'.

Scholar for Other Windward Islands, also Fara and Marantotters for other Windward Islands, and Greytown, per s. s. Monowai (from San Francisco), close here daily up to January '13 at 6:30 p. m. for Baruddos per s. s.

Religions Notices.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES every evening in Thirty, courth Street Reformed Church, west of Sthave. Rev. Dr. STRYKER, Pastor. Preaching and singing by Rev. PRANK WRIGHT, the Indian Evangelist. A cordia